

nottdance08 selection panel:
take part in selecting international artists for the festival

What is nottdance?

As most of you know, nottdance is Dance4's annual international festival of experimental dance and performance, taking place across the city of Nottingham in October each year.

We are currently putting together our programme of performances and events for nottdance08 (17-26 October 2008) and we need you.

Is this for you?

Are you interested in contemporary dance and/or performance?
Have you attended any performances as part of nottdance?
Have you considered attending but never got round to it?
Are you available Saturday 29 March all day to come to Dance4?

We hope the following will be of interest to you...

nottdance08 selection of international artists

This year we are looking at opening up the process of selecting international artists who will make up the programme for nottdance08. We want to involve you in this process.

With nottdance08 we want to explore the idea of choice, not only with you as audience members but there will also be a panel of young people. In addition to this we will also be asking artists that have presented work with us in the past to also choose work as curators.

What is in it for you?

This will be a chance to be part of a programming panel, looking at short-listed work on DVD, and ultimately selecting some of the artists who will be part of nottdance08. This process will also involve discussions on what it means to programme work for a festival such as nottdance.

When is the selection happening?

This process will take place on Saturday 29 March at Dance4's offices in Nottingham city centre and will take up a whole day ( 11.00-16.00 tbc)

We will cover your travel expenses and offer lunch during the day. The process will be facilitated and recorded for our purposes, as well as being shared with our nottdance audience at large.

How do you register?

To take part and for more information please contact Becky@dance4.co.uk. Panel members will be confirmed on a first come first served basis.
